

1 prison and he commits a capital murder.

2 These are the things you know
3 about the defendant that tell you
4 something about his character and his 5 ability to follow the rules and his 6 desire to change himself or rehabilitate
7 himself.

8 You heard from Vivian Jackson
9 who told you that he abused her, that he 10 threatened her with weapons, that he
11 beat her, and he got away with it over
12 the years through coercion and threats.

13 What else do you know? You
14 heard from the Defense's own experts
15 that they called who prepared reports to 16 aid you in the defense of this man. You 17 heard from Dr. Quijano, who had a lot of 18 experience in the Texas Department of 19 Corrections, who told you that there was 20 a probability that the man would commit
21 future acts of violence.

22 MR. EASTERLING: That's a
23 misstatement of the evidence.
24 He said there was a low
25 probability and not a
